

This perimeter area was packed with 'sawdust'. Still cleaning it out. It was oily- was this some type of bearing lubricant?? If so, then never seen before. Is any lube required in this area?

