

This set up is for putting a floating table right behind the main table, i.e. for ripping long pieces; instead of using roller stands, the extension table is reversed and one floating table and two telescoping legs are used as an outfeed set up ~~~doug

