

Hello Valued Shopsmith Customer,

My name is Lisa Albers and we are the Publisher for Shopsmith's Power Tool Woodworking Hard Bound Book.

I am writing you on behalf of Shopsmith to thank you for your recent purchase of the Hard Bound Book and also to advise you that our bindery company made an error on your original copy in the Index section only. Therefore, we have completely reprinted the book and are providing you with an updated copy. There is no charge to you for this updated copy. Also, you do not need to send the original copy back. The information in the original copy is complete other than not having the last 8 pages of the index.

We apologize for this error but hope you enjoy this book very much.

Best Regards,

Lisa Albers
